

Amazing Sojourns

Appendix B — Cruise-Line Quick Comparison

A traveler-friendly guide to the personalities, inclusions, and best-fit guests for major river cruise lines.

Page 1 of 2

 CRUISE LINE	 GENERAL STYLE	 ACTIVITY OPTIONS	 LUXURY LEVEL	 FAMILY POLICY	 BEVERAGE APPROACH	 CABIN DISTINCTION	 BEST-FIT TRAVELER
 AmaWaterways	Warm, personal, contemporary, and flexible	Gentle, regular, and active walking groups; hiking, cycling, wellness classes, and culinary experiences on many itineraries	Premium	Children age four and older are generally accepted, but ships are not designed around children's programming	Wine, beer, and soft drinks with lunch and dinner, plus a daily Sip & Sail cocktail hour; details vary by destination	Twin balconies combining a French balcony and step-out veranda in many cabins, but not throughout the fleet	Active adults, food and wine travelers, first-time cruisers, and couples who prefer different touring speeds
 VIKING	Calm, destination-focused, consistent, and Scandinavian-inspired	One general included excursion in each port, with optional specialized tours; less emphasis on fitness and active touring	Premium	Adults only; every guest must be at least eighteen	Beer, wine, and soft drinks with lunch and dinner; an expanded Silver Spirits package is available	Recognizable European Longships with fixed-window, French-balcony, veranda, and suite categories	Adults who value history, cultural enrichment, minimalist design, and predictable shipboard routines.
 UNIWORLD BOUTIQUE RIVER CRUISES	Lavish, artistic, highly inclusive, and boutique-hotel inspired	Included cultural excursions, bicycles, Nordic walking sticks, and wellness activities; options vary by itinerary	Luxury	Children are welcomed on selected Generations Collection departures, with activities for ages four through seventeen	Broad selection of premium wines, spirits, beer, soft drinks, coffee, and tea generally included	Each ship is individually decorated with destination-inspired art, fabrics, antiques, and furnishings	Travelers who enjoy ornate boutique hotels, distinctive ships, fine dining, and broad inclusions.
 TAUCK	Highly guided, culturally immersive, seamless, and destination-led	Included small-group excursions, private events, and cultural experiences; family and active options on selected programs	Luxury and highly inclusive	Family river cruises are offered on selected Tauck Bridges departures; many standard sailings attract primarily adults	Wine, beer, premium spirits, soft drinks, coffee, and tea included throughout the day onboard	Intimate ships with many French-balcony cabins and an unusually large collection of spacious suites	Travelers who want hotels, transfers, excursions, gratuities, and special access coordinated as one complete journey.
 RIVERSIDE LUXURY CRUISES	Intimate, suite-focused, culinary, personalized, and resort-like	Riverside Choice excursions, including cultural, culinary, and selected active options; excursion inclusion depends on the package	Ultra-luxury	Children are permitted under the booking terms, but the ships are adult-oriented and do not provide child-specific programming	Choice of full-board or premium all-inclusive packages; premium beverages depend on the fare selected	All-suite ships with butler service for every guest; some categories provide exceptionally spacious living and bathroom areas	Luxury travelers who prioritize suite space, dining variety, butler service, and an intimate small-fleet experience.

info@amazingsojourns.com

https://amazingsojourns.com

Amazing

Sojourns

Appendix B — Cruise-Line Quick Comparison

A traveler-friendly guide to the personalities, inclusions, and best-fit guests for major river cruise lines.

Page 2 of 2

 CRUISE LINE	 GENERAL STYLE	 ACTIVITY OPTIONS	 LUXURY LEVEL	 FAMILY POLICY	 BEVERAGE APPROACH	 CABIN DISTINCTION	 BEST-FIT TRAVELER
	Contemporary, relaxed, view-focused, and flexible	Included Classic, Active, and Discovery excursions; bikes, e-bikes, hiking, kayaking, and hands-on experiences on applicable itineraries	Premium or relaxed luxury	Minimum age is generally eight; ships do not provide dedicated children's facilities	Wine and beer with lunch and dinner, sparkling wine at breakfast, and soft drinks and hot beverages throughout the day	Approximately 200-square-foot Panorama Suites with seven-foot-wide Open-Air Balconies and beds facing the view	Scenic cruisers, active travelers, photographers, and couples who want different excursion choices.
	Refined, highly inclusive, service-focused, and contemporary	Scenic Freechoice excursions, Scenic Enrich events, and e-bikes on many European ships	Ultra-luxury	Children under twelve are generally not encouraged, except on certain Christmas journeys; no dedicated youth facilities	Premium wines, beers, spirits, cocktails, soft drinks, coffee, and tea included throughout the day, with a few rare-beverage exceptions	Butler service for every suite; Scenic Sun Lounges in designated Balcony, Junior, and Royal Suites	Travelers who want premium beverages, gratuities, excursions, special events, and personal service included upfront.
	Friendly, contemporary, informal, and value-conscious	Included sightseeing, EmeraldACTIVE outings, EmeraldPLUS experiences, and optional DiscoverMORE excursions	Relaxed luxury	Not positioned primarily as a family line; minors must travel with an accompanying adult under the applicable terms	Wine, beer, and soft drinks with lunch and dinner; expanded drinks packages are available	Innovative all-weather balcony windows in many suites; ship layouts and features vary	First-time cruisers, active couples, and travelers who want modern comfort without paying for every ultra-luxury inclusion.
	French, international, informal, and itinerary-driven	Traditional touring, cultural visits, and selected themed or family excursions; generally fewer multi-pace choices than activity-focused lines	Value-oriented to premium, depending on vessel	Children are welcomed, with special Family Club departures and offers for children through age sixteen on selected sailings	Meals and most drinks with meals and at the bar are included; special premium wines and certain extras cost more	Diverse fleet ranging from traditional river ships to intimate canal barges; cabins vary significantly by vessel	Budget-conscious travelers, repeat cruisers, Francophiles, and guests seeking canals or unusual waterways.
	Casual, European, sociable, and especially family-friendly	General sightseeing, family activities, and Kids Club programming on selected departures; offerings vary by ship	Contemporary premium	Children are welcomed; A-ROSA SENA has a permanent Kids Club, children's pool, and family cabins for as many as five guests	Premium All-Inclusive fares include water, soft drinks, sparkling wine, and selected wines and beers; package details vary	Family cabins on selected ships, including twelve large cabins beside the Kids Club on A-ROSA SENA	Families, multigenerational groups, and travelers comfortable with a casual English-and-German atmosphere.

info@amazingsojourns.com

https://amazingsojourns.com

