3. Clothing — Everyday Touring

- ☐ Lightweight shirts or blouses
- ☐ Short- and long-sleeved tops
- ☐ Comfortable pants
- ☐ Jeans or travel trousers
- ☐ Shorts or skirts for warm-weather itineraries
- ☐ Lightweight sweater or cardigan
- ☐ Fleece, vest, or warmer middle layer
- ☐ Lightweight jacket
- ☐ Undergarments
- ☐ Sleepwear
- ☐ Socks suitable for walking
- ☐ Comfortable clothes for relaxing onboard

Choose pieces that can be layered and worn in several combinations. Neutral basics can reduce the amount of clothing you need.

4. Smart-Casual Evenings

- ☐ Collared shirts, blouses, or polished tops
- ☐ Slacks, skirts, or simple dresses
- ☐ Lightweight jacket or dressier sweater
- ☐ Comfortable dinner shoes
- ☐ One slightly dressier outfit for a captain's dinner, concert, or special evening

Most river cruises do not require formalwear. A tuxedo, evening gown, or heavy suit is rarely necessary unless your cruise documents specifically request formal dress.

5. Shoes

- ☐ Supportive walking shoes
- ☐ Shoes with nonslip soles
- ☐ Comfortable casual shoes for the ship
- ☐ Dressier shoes, when desired
- ☐ Sandals for warm-weather travel
- ☐ Waterproof shoes or boots for wet or winter conditions

Cobblestones, stairs, slopes, and uneven pavement are common. Break in new shoes before the trip rather than wearing them for the first time on an excursion.
