RIVER CRUISE PACKING LIST

Page 4 of 6 • Day Bag and Electronics

9. Day Bag Essentials

- ☐ Small backpack, crossbody bag, or lightweight tote
- ☐ Refillable water bottle
- ☐ Cruise identification card
- ☐ Wallet and small amount of cash
- ☐ Phone
- ☐ Portable charger
- ☐ Sunglasses
- ☐ Sunscreen
- ☐ Rain protection
- ☐ Tissues
- ☐ Hand sanitizer
- ☐ Essential medications
- ☐ Copy of the ship's contact information
- ☐ Foldable shopping bag
- ☐ Small notebook and pen

Choose a day bag that closes securely and leaves your hands free on stairs and cobblestones. Avoid carrying a large or heavy bag during long walking tours.

10. Electronics

- ☐ Mobile phone
- ☐ Phone charger
- ☐ Camera and charger
- ☐ Tablet or e-reader
- ☐ Headphones or earbuds
- ☐ Portable power bank
- ☐ Charging cables
- ☐ Power adapters
- ☐ Approved USB charging hub
- ☐ Spare memory card
- ☐ Luggage tracker, when desired

Check which electrical outlets are available aboard your exact ship. European river vessels may use European-style outlets, while some also provide North American or USB connections.

A power adapter changes the plug shape. It does not convert voltage. Verify that each device can accept the local voltage before using it. Cruise lines may prohibit extension cords, surge protectors, heating appliances, and certain multi-outlet devices. Check the company's rules before packing them.
